Exotique Ibiza

Less developed than its larger neighbour Mallorca, it has all the ingredients for a wonderful, relaxing holiday: unspoilt beaches, secluded coves, crystal clear waters, attractive scenery and plenty of sun. For the energetic, there are superb watersports, for lovers of history there are mysterious, ancient monuments dating back to prehistoric times. When night falls, there are plenty of colourful taverns and restaurants where you can gently unwind over a gin or a delicious lobster stew.

Fiestas are a feature of Ibizan and Menorcan life, throughout the year towns celebrate their patron saints' days. Processions and fireworks, food and drink, music and dance, equestrian displays.

The road unknown...

The flower festival in Santa Eulalia, Ibiza, falls on the first Sunday in May. That's followed on 23rd June by fireworks and bonfires all through Spain, to celebrate the arrival of summer.

In Menorca, Fiesta time begins with a splash on 23rd and 24th June when the people of Ciutadella take to the streets to honour Sant Joan (St John). There are colourful processions, superb horse riding and firework displays and lots of merrymaking, all washed down with generous amounts of pomada, or gin with lemon.

The festival of Sant Joan is also when Mahon hosts a regatta between the town and Barcelona in mainland Spain. The Festival of Our Lady of Carmen is on 16th July and it's particularly spectacular in Ibiza Town.

In Menorca, Fiesta time begins with a splash on 23rd and 24th June when the people of Ciutadella.
